

DEPARTMENT PROFILE

The Department of Commerce, was established from the academic year 1979-80 initially offering The Bachelors course in Commerce started in 1980. Since then, the department has steadily grown and achieved several milestones Bharatiya Adima Jaati Sevak Sangh® in short BAJSS is an all-India level voluntary organization, registered in the year 1949-50 at New Delhi. The objectives of the BAJSS are social service and Socio-economic organisation aiming at educational improvement of the Adeema Jaati (Primitive and Aboriginal tribes) communities and weaker sections including Nomadic and De-notified (Vimukta) tribes, from the academic year 1979-80 in India. Overall objective is to enable them to take their legitimate place as responsible citizens. It has expanded its educational activities throughout the country till date. A local committee formed by the authorities of all India BAJSS started BAJSS Arts and Commerce College for women, Ranebennur, Haveri Dist. Karnataka from the academic year 1979-80, exclusively meant for Women's education and this college is affiliated to Karnataka State Women's University since 2003-2004. The department offers 3 years course as prescribed by parent university, Alongside the regular class and course activities, various intra class, inter-class and inter collegiate activities. It organizes guest lectures, workshops and conducts add on programs to expose the students to various aspects outside the ambit of academics. enable the students to improve their skills. The department regularly organises workshops and seminars to help students to update their knowledge regarding the latest developments in the field of Commerce, Banking and Finance. At the undergraduate level itself the students are initiated into data collection and research. Case study method, role - play, student presentations are different methodologies used to make the class room session lively and inter active. Students are encouraged to go through observational studies, field visits and internships to optimise their class room learning. The syllabus is

Objectives

To impart quality education in the field of commerce to young women who wish to foray into commercial ventures. The current globalised scenario has opened up many opportunities. Business and commerce are dynamic and exciting fields of study with practical applications. A good understanding of business and commerce related subjects are essential for those who wish to be a part of the business and industry.

- 1.To develop skills and knowledge on a sound foundation of commercial activities in today's world.
2. To develop analytical skills and knowledge pertaining to practical financial and cost accounting systems which are both traditional and computer based.
3. To gain knowledge of the taxation system prevalent and to be aware of the obligations of citizens in their respective fields of business with the least amount of risks and maximizing protection of the operations.
4. To enhance good business communication skills to further activities in the growing world of opportunity to access markets.
5. To prepare students for the emerging e-commerce trends in global market.

The specific objectives of the programmes are:

- 1.To develop skills and knowledge on a sound foundation of commercial activities in today's world.
- 2.To develop analytical skills and knowledge pertaining to practical financial and cost accounting systems which are both traditional and computer based.
3. To gain knowledge of the taxation system prevalent and to be aware of the obligations of citizens in their respective fields of business with the least number. of risks and maximizing protection of the operations.
4. To enhance good business communication skills to further activities in the growing world of opportunity to access markets.
5. To prepare students for the emerging e-commerce trends in global market.

